

MOHAMMED SHARIF UDDIN

Director Publicity & Communication

Mohammed Sharif Uddin was born on 1st November 1965 in a well known Muslim family. His father, late Mohammad Showkat Ali was known as honest and dedicated Police officer and mother, Khayera Khatun was a successful homemaker who were blessed with five sons and one daughter among which Mohammad Sharif Uddin is the 4th. All his siblings are well established in their own sectors of works. His elder brother is the AGM of Sonali Bank Ltd and other brothers are inspector of police, Bangladesh Supreme Court of lawyer, doctor in neuro-surgery of Bangabondhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University. His only sister is a house wife. Advocate Sharif Uddin successfully completed secondary school from Chittagong Muslim Education Society High School on 1980 and Masters on Islamic History on 1990. He joined the legal profession on 1995 after completing LLB under Chittagong University. He joined Chittagong Income Tax Bar on 1997 and completed LLM on 2009. He is associated with human rights activity for last two era since his student life of Chittagong University.

His contribution towards legal profession and society can never be denied. In his practice life he served as an assistant public prosecutor for a long time. He has been serving as legal adviser and panel lawyer for number companies which are Sonali bank Ltd, IBBL etc. As Human Rights activist he has also served as an election supervisor in 2001 8th National Election, 2006 Union Porishod Election, and 2005 Chittagong City Corporation Election. He is the advisor of CDC (Centre for Disables' Concern), director of Chittagong Victory National School, Life member of Bangladesh Red Crescent Society, Muslim Education Society, Kodom Mubarak Orphan Centre, Chittagong Ma-O-Shishu Hospital, Chittagong College Alumni, Bangladesh Co-operative Book Society, Board Member of Jayatun-Yahia Welfare Trust, Life member Diabetic Somity of Chittagong, Quantum graduate etc. As a human rights worker he has attended many seminars and training throughout the world. He has served for long time as the general secretary of Bangladesh Manobadhikar Shongstha. He also served as MIO and later as Chief Dark Star of SGGHR (Strengthening Good Governance through Human Rights). He worked on different cases on human rights violation. As a successful lawyer, he is a regular guest on different law related shows on Chittagong radio. At present he is the director communication and publicity and trusty member of Bangladesh Human Rights Foundation.

